

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Experience in organizing for rural safety has shown that most farm accidents could be prevented through sensible practices and protective devices; and

WHEREAS, farm and ranch families should work for safer rural communities by eliminating hazards and unsafe practices that cause or contribute to farm accidents; and

WHEREAS, South Dakota farmers should protect themselves from day to day farm hazards by conducting their activities in the best manner to minimize chances of an accident.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby call upon the people of this state to observe the week beginning July 19, 1970 as and urge all farm and ranch families, and those persons and groups serving or allied with agriculture, to use all possible means for minimizing accident losses at work, in homes, at recreation, and on the roadways.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I Have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota this 15th day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy.
